Make Love Not War in Ukraine: 9 shows you don't want to miss this weekend

Reut Barnea, October 20th, 2022

In Yonatan Ullman's multi-media installation 'I Want My Mom' (curator: Sharon Toval), like a kaleidoscope, seven energetically-charged works of art connect and fall apart to suggest multiple readings - a tribute to Leonardo Da Vinci's 'Salvator Mundi', preserved body parts, a disappearing text-based work, and an intimate book titled 'Wis(h)per' all connect - inviting the viewers on a rationalistic, deep and fascinating journey.
